

Bartow Precast is a well-established company located in Cartersville, Georgia. We manufacture precast concrete products for water, waste water, and electrical industries. Our products include gravity grease interceptors for restaurants and food service facilities, water and electrical utility vaults for private and municipal projects and many custom underground products for commercial use.

We have an immediate opening for a Concrete Mixer Truck Operator.

CDL not required. You will be operating a truck equipped with an auxiliary concrete mixer to transport concrete from our on-site batch plant to production forms on the yard.

This job is outdoors and will require working in various weather conditions.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Position truck under batch hopper to load concrete
Drive truck on yard to transport concrete from batch hopper to forms
Assemble and maneuver chute to unload concrete
Clean truck and mixer after unloading to prevent concrete from hardening on truck or in mixer
Inspect truck daily to ensure all components are operating properly

Requirements include:

Concrete mixer truck experience helpful
Ability to drive a manual transmission truck
Mechanical aptitude
Able to meet physical demands of the position, including heavy lifting and climbing onto truck
Able to work outdoors in various weather conditions
Excellent attendance and reliable transportation to work
Available for overtime as needed
Team player
Good communication skills
Comfortable in a fast paced family-oriented environment

Benefits include:

Weekly direct deposit
Paid holidays and vacation
Group health, dental, and vision insurance
401k plus company non-elective contribution (we contribute even if you don't!)
Profit sharing
Flexible Spending Plan
Parental Leave
Bereavement Pay
Life, disability, cancer insurance availability
Company paid rain jacket and safety shoes allowance
Referral program

Post offer background and drug screening required.